Good Afternoon,

Here are the most recent updates as of the afternoon of Thursday, March 25th:

- The NLDA and the NLDB have met yesterday evening to discuss a Pandemic Plan. This plan is now complete and sent to you all. If you have not seen the plan you can click here to view it.
This plan will be changed and altered as things continue to evolve.
- Our website has now been updated to include more information regarding COVID-19. There you will find FAQs, all previous memos, the pandemic plan, and more when needed.
If you feel overwhelmed when checking your emails for our updates because of all of the emails you are likely getting currently, you can go directly to our webpage to see the memos instead.
Please click here to be brought to the webpage.
- The Chief Medical Officer of Health, Dr. Janice Fitzgerald, has provided an update and there are now 32 new presumptive cases in Newfoundland and Labrador. We now have cases in all 4 health regions. The province's cases now number 67, ranging in age from eight to 78 years old.

- There are many discussions regarding the new financial plans that Government is now putting into plan for COVID-19.
The Government of Canada is taking immediate, significant and decisive action to help Canadians facing hardship as a result of the COVID-19 outbreak.
On March 18, 2020, the Prime Minister announced a new set of economic measures to help stabilize the economy during this challenging period. These measures, delivered as part of the Government of Canada's COVID-19 Economic Response Plan, will provide up to $27 billion in direct support to Canadian workers and businesses.

Our next update will be tomorrow morning, Thursday March 26th. We will continue to keep you updated.

Kind Regards,

Amanda Squires on behalf of Dr. Paul Hurley, President of the NLDA
